From Our Pastor:

For the celebration of the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass, the Church

publishes the Roman Missal and the first part of it is a long instruction on how to say the Mass. It is called "The General Instruction of the Roman Missal", popularly known as the "G.I.R.M.". Number 299 of the GIRM states, "The altar should be built separate from the wall, in such a way that it is possible to walk around it easily and that Mass can be celebrated at it facing the people wherever possible. ..." Those who came to my Vatican II presentation know that this was never legislated nor even recommended in the Council. Bugnini and his accomplices were in a great hurry to get the new Missal (originally called "Sacramentary") published and widely distributed before Blessed Paul VI realized what they were up to. So they didn't have the chance to make sure that the rubrics (small red type interspersed throughout the Missal giving particular instructions for the Mass) matched up with the GIRM. So four times in the rubrics the priest is instructed to turn and face the people. At the beginning of the Mass the official Latin rubric says, "...dum sacerdos, ad populum conversus salutatur, dicit." The loose English translation says, "...then the priest facing the people says." The Latin word "Conversus" means to turn around, or change completely. From there comes our English word "convert". A more faithful translation would be, "...then the priest, turning around toward the people, says." Then after the initial elevations of the offertory it says again, "...versus ad populum...dicit," then the priest says, "Pray Brethren..." Then after the Lamb of God again the priest is instructed, "...ad populum versus, clara voce dicit." Then again at the end of Mass just before the final blessing it says, "...Sacerdos, versus ad populum, extendens manus dicit," (to be continued)

THANK YOU!

Men and Women Are from Eden

God's design for life, love, relationships, and sex is written into our very bodies. With incredible clarity, Dr. Mary Healy explains how the Theology of the Body, Pope St. John Paul II's deeply biblical understanding of Our Lord's original plan for men and women, is astonishingly good news for a culture littered with broken marriages, immorality, heartache, and loneliness. CD's are $4 each.

STATIONS OF THE CROSS

Adoration & Benediction

FAMILY PROMISE TRAINING & THANK YOU

Family Promise will be holding a required training session for any new and prospective volunteers who have not gone through training in the past. We have scheduled this training for our parish on Sunday, March 26 at 10:45 in the dining hall. The training will last about 1 hour. Our present volunteers are welcome to attend this training also as some of the material will be new. If you have any questions please give me a call at 723-4990. ~ Bill

During our host week it turned out that we had no families to serve, as the family that was in the program the week prior was no longer part of it when we began. And no families came into the program during our week, which could have happened on any day. But we wish to thank all of you who had signed up to help out. It was great to know that if a family came into the program we were ready to serve them. Without all of you, we could not do this! So again, THANK YOU for your generosity!

ADULT ED DURING LENT

Lent is a time for us to grow closer to the Lord. Join us for the Lenten study "Seven Deadly Sins, Seven Lively Virtues" by Bishop Robert Barron. There will be two opportunities for the study. The first is on Monday night at 6:30 PM; and the other is on Wednesday morning at 9 AM. Even though we began last week, you are still welcome to join us.

IGNATIUS OF LOYOLA: SOLDIER, SINNER, SAINT

If you have not already done so, get your tickets now for Ignatius of Loyola: Soldier, Sinner, Saint which will be shown at the Grantland Theatre this week on Tuesday, March 21 and on Wednesday, March 22. Both show times are at 7 PM. Tickets are $7 and can be purchased at the rectory on Monday, Tuesday or Wednesday. They will also be available for purchase after the Masses this weekend in the back of church, as well at the theater on Tuesday and Wednesday before the movie. However buying your tickets in advance is highly recommended, especially for the Wednesday night showing. Ignatius Press rates the movie PG-13. Ignatius' story of conversion is truly remarkable. Come see the true life story of a soldier who sought his own glory, to one who became a soldier for Christ and the founder of the Society of Jesus.

In Memoriam

In this Lenten season, please remember in your prayers this week Tom Cherrier, a former member of our parish who died in Colorado on March 2 and whose funeral was held here on Wednesday. Tom was 78 at the time of his passing from this life into life eternal. On an interesting note, when Tom was young, his family lived in the old school as his parents were the janitors of the school and parish, just as the Fedoruk's had done prior. Tom left Lancaster after his graduation from high school to further his studies and begin his career in mining. He returned often to Lancaster to visit his relatives, especially his aunt, Catherine Graney.

As we pray for Tom, may we also pray for others who recently died - Lawton Alderson, the father of LaVon Broihahn and Lynn Holzinger; Gerald & Iona "Sis" Mayne, the parents of Patti Carroll; and Norb Stoker, the brother of Joe Stoker and Anita Richgels, and the father of Mary Ann Stoker. As we keep these good people in our prayers, may we also pray for all of their loved ones in this time of sorrow. May God's consolation and comfort be with them.

"Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them. May their souls, and the souls of all the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace. Amen."

Easter Memorials

We will be accepting memorial offering in honor and remembrance of your loved ones who are no longer with us. These offering will be used to purchase the Easter decorations for the church. If interested, please mark your envelope "Easter Memorial" along with your name (in case we need clarification) and name(s) of your loved ones to be remembered. The memorials can be dropped off in the offertory basket or at the rectory office. Please return these memorials no later than Sunday, April 9th.
